Key Insights

1. Animesh depot has a very low capacity utilization of 1.4%, indicating underutilization of resources
2. Terna Depot-Electronics has zero utilization, suggesting a potential surplus of storage space
3. Both depots have zero SKUs, implying a lack of inventory or inefficient storage management
4. There is a significant opportunity for optimization and potential expansion to improve depot capacity utilization

Recommendations

1. Conduct a thorough analysis of inventory management processes to identify areas for improvement
2. Consider consolidating inventory from other locations to optimize storage space
3. Develop a strategic plan to increase capacity utilization and reduce waste
4. Explore opportunities for expansion or relocation to better meet business needs

Alerts

Immediate attention is required to address the extremely low capacity utilization at both depots

Zero SKUs at both depots may indicate a critical issue with inventory management or storage processes
